13. Liability limitations.

UPS's liability for loss or damage to UPS Ground Saver packages is limited to a maximum of fifty dollars ($50) per package. Whenever goods are damaged or lost in the course of transportation by UPS and a valid claim has been filed as set forth in the UPS Tariff, UPS will pay, at its option, the lowest of the following: the actual cost of the goods, the repair cost, the replacement cost, or fifty dollars ($50). Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, UPS shall have no liability for any loss of, or damage to, any goods while in the care, custody or control of the USPS, or any other third party.

UPS Ground Saver service is an economy transportation service intended for the transportation of low value packages; therefore, Customer agrees that the limitation of liability set forth above is reasonable under the circumstances surrounding the transportation. Accordingly, any packages that Customer ships using UPS Ground Saver service will be subject to the limitation of liability contained in these UPS Ground Saver Service Terms, and Customer acknowledges that it does not wish to declare an additional value for any package to avoid the limitation of liability set forth herein. If Customer inadvertently makes a declaration of value in excess of the limit set forth herein, Customer and UPS will consider such declaration to be null and void. Customer, on behalf of itself and its consignees, waives any right or claim for loss or damage to a package in excess of the limitation of liability set forth herein.

Customer agrees that a UPS delivery scan, including a driver release delivery record or a record of delivery to the USPS, shall constitute valid and conclusive proof of delivery. Where a delivery scan for a package has been provided as proof of delivery, UPS shall not be liable for, and Customer agrees to hold UPS harmless from, any and all claims arising from delivery of such package, including loss, theft, non-delivery, or delayed delivery.

UPS's exclusions of liability contained in the UPS Tariff are expressly incorporated herein, as modified herein. Under no circumstances shall UPS be liable for any special, incidental, or consequential damages arising from the transportation of goods, including loss, mis-delivery of, or damage to goods, delayed delivery, or failure to attempt delivery in a timely manner. Under no circumstances shall UPS be liable for any packages after tender to the USPS.
